Failure to appear may result in loss or modification of custody, loss or modification of parenting time, issuance of a child support order, or issuance of a warrant for your arrest.

Custody, child support, and other relief may be determined at the hearing. You must bring your last federal income tax return, W-2, and a year-to-date earnings statement from your employer to determine child support issues.

Please report at least 15 minutes before your scheduled hearing.

Each party to this case may be entitled to legal counsel and the Court will appoint counsel to provide representation to those parties that the Court determines to be indigent. Counsel will not be appointed in allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibility Cases or Child Support cases filed on or after September 30, 2005. The Attorney Appointment Coordinator is the Court employee designated to arrange for the appointment of counsel for indigent parties and can be reached at (419) 213-6703. Hours of availability run from 1:30pm to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday.

Failure to appear in Court may result in the loss of custody of the child(ren), and/or the issuance of other orders that the Court finds appropriate.
A warrant may be issued for your apprehension if you fail to appear.

Witness my hand and the Seal of this Court 12/10/25
